

Dear Arts Education friends and colleagues, ...

A group of 5 faculty artists in the UCLA School of Arts and Architecture has formed to offer a pilot summer arts institute, The FORM ACADEMY at UCLA, this August 1-6, 2016, for up to 20 high school students from urban schools in LA. We are looking for participants who are interested in exploring the arts and creative process in an interdisciplinary format, and also wanting to explore what life could be like at the university. This weeklong workshop (Monday – Saturday) will be held at UCLA Broad Art Center, and offered free to selected participants, with priority given to diverse students from low income communities. Please let me know if you have any questions about this pilot project.
