

Denny's Hungry for Education (HFE) is a multicultural scholarship program targeting students from elementary through college and is designed to recognize and reward students for their ideas to fight against childhood hunger. The Denny's Hungry for Education will be available across the United States to students who are U.S. residents. Denny's will partner with 8 leading non-profit minority advocacy organizations to launch the programs across the United States. The program will award more than $200,000 in scholarships to deserving elementary, high school and college students for their ideas to help Denny's fight childhood hunger.

Eligibility:

- Applicant must be a U.S. citizen or permanent U.S. resident and be enrolled in an accredited U.S. educational institution;
- High school and college students must meet GPA level and other requirements set by each organization. Students may apply for one scholarship program per year;
- If an applicant is under 18, a parent or legal guardian must sign an Affidavit of Eligibility and Assignment of Rights for the student to receive the scholarship award;
- Scholarship funds must be used for education-related expenses such as tuition or related fees, books, supplies, or equipment required for courses at an accredited post-secondary education institution.
