Noggin Creator's Program

Noggin, from Nickelodeon's Nick Jr., is a learning service for families with young kids.

This summer, Noggin is inviting creative people like you to apply for an 8 week immersion program with real work experience. This is a unique opportunity for young creators to be mentored by industry experts while learning how to develop a final content product tailored for young kids.

You will be provided with equipment to create the content and you will be coached and mentored by Noggin's award-winning animation and live-action teams. No previous professional experience is required to participate. We're just looking for people with great ideas!

Scan the code below to learn more and apply.

Registration closes on March 31st, 2023.
